

On-call station

Information sheet

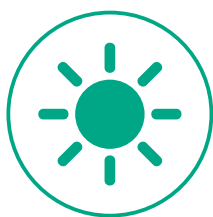

Epping

is an on-call fire station staffed by firefighters who are available to respond to emergencies when their pager alerts.

Training night: Thursday 2–3 hours

On an average weekly basis how often are we needed?

Daytime

3

Evening

2

Overnight

1

On average how long am I likely to be called out for? Approximately 1 hour

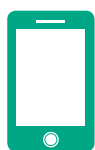

How much on average could I earn as an on-call firefighter?

6000

Earnings vary depending on the hours of cover you provide and how busy the station is, but for Epping station the average earnings over the past 12 months were £6,000 per annum, which is paid monthly.

Contact us

HR Support team
01376 576121

Station address

Fire Station, High Street, Epping
Essex CM16 4AF

www.essex-fire.gov.uk

Essex County
Fire & Rescue Service

Our Values: Respect, Accountability, Openness and Involvement

