

On-call station

Information sheet

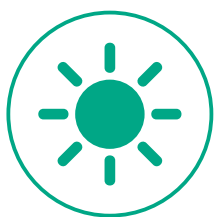

Leaden Roding

is an on-call fire station staffed by firefighters who are available to respond to emergencies when their pager alerts.

Training night: Thursday 2–3 hours

On an average weekly basis how often are we needed?

Daytime

1

Evening less than

1

Overnight
less than

1

On average how long am I likely to be called out for? Approximately 1 hour

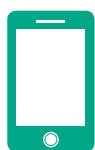

How much on average could I earn as an on-call firefighter?

6000

Earnings vary depending on the hours of cover you provide and how busy the station is, but for Leaden Roding station the average earnings over the past 12 months were £6,000 per annum, which is paid monthly.

Contact us

HR Support team
01376 576121

Station address

Fire Station, Dunmow Road, Leaden Roding
Essex CM6 1QB

www.essex-fire.gov.uk

Essex County
Fire & Rescue Service

Our Values: Respect, Accountability, Openness and Involvement

